RACING GOSSIP.

If there was an ante race book on the Futurity Ornament would be a stout favorite. He is being specially prepared for the race, which is run at Coney Island three weeks from yesterday—Saturday, August 19. Garrison, who has this year done some riding such as he used to do, will ride the colt. He's doing well—the colt. There are no bulletins about the "Snapper." As racing goes on it looks as if the Futurity starters will come from this band of twenty-six.

Don d'Oro,	St. Bartholomew,
Rosinante,	Tempestuous,
Parthemax,	Scottish Chieftain,
Eakin,	George Kessler,
San Mateo,	Moncreith,
Takanassee,	Dr. Jim,
Rhodesia,	Lady Mottle,
Orestes,	Ornament,
Meadowthorpe,	Dolce,
Eugenia Wickes,	Rodermond,
Challenger,	Eidolon,
The Cockney,	Box,
Pannure,	T. W. W.

No wonder Ornament is fancied. The reports about Eakin's bad condition may be discounted, even though he isn't sent to the races. He's Dave Gideon's hope and Dave's good. Parthemax is a good colt, furtively raced. Kessler and Challenger have great quality. San Mateo, fit, would be a consideration. The others have been beaten in races which discount their class.

The Cincinnati papers are badly out of line with the turf. One—anonously—and the other—by name—posts "Lakeland" O'Brien as a "welcher." "Hops" Laudeman's name is used for that of the complainant and the amount of bets said to have been left over from last fall runs in newspaper report from $1,000 to $15,000. Mr. Laudeman is said to have complained to the Latonia judges and officials of the Turf Congress. What bosh. O'Brien is well able to pay all that he owes. There may be an O'Brien-Laudeman difference to be adjudicated. It is certainly no worse. O'Brien is solvent and one of the best bettors of the western turf, though he may not be one of the wisest.

The Western turf needs more control. It's too broad and wide for its government. Either the government must be enlarged or that in the saddle made more embrative. The East has its faults. The powers there are short of sight and too local. But they rule what they rule—absolutely. At that, the government of both American turf sections is mild and grannyish compared with that of the English Jockey Club. That is a sensible despot, and one can hardly consider a government more wise in a broad way than one of elastic despotism.

John Carter, a keen horseman and Latonia's presiding judge, suggests shorter meetings as a turf tonic. His gaze is local—Cincinnati racing has graded off this year, as it always will when Chicago has a chance at the sport. St. Louis always feels the same influence. Mr. Carter suggests legislative action through racing in fluences for strengthening restriction. Has he weighed ruralism—let us call it the diplomacy of rival interests in such virile racing fields as those about Chicago and Cincinnati. Legislation, as bearing upon racing, will not "do." The only available method to be used is temperate combination. Bad laws are worse than no laws at all. The average "hacks" at racing by legislatures have all been vile. They either declared—through ignorance of English or in a spirit of mischief and "macing"—exactly what they were not meant to declare, or were spiteful, narrow and ill-fitting as a bigseersucker coat on a small man.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

A well known Eastern bookmaker, Sam Mulford, died a few days ago at New York.

Sam Hildreth takes the Pinkerton Stable to Detroit. H. Shields will do the riding.

Brewer Schorr has cut short his son's riding career—none too bright a one—and sent him back to school.

The blue and orange of J. B. Haggin will be displayed in racing next season. Matt Byrnes will train the horses raced.

Jockey Reiff, who is riding for Duke & Wishard in England, up to July 15 had to his credit eleven wins out of twenty-eight mounts.

Frank Brown has bought the 3-year-old chestnut filly Teragnes by Terra Cotta or Deceiver—Agnes from the Ogden Stable. He will take her to Detroit with others.

Prince Lief, after all the peans about his condition and all else, is on the shelf with a bowed tendon and Ben Brush may make a second western trip—Bill McGuigan has advised it—just to win the Detroit Derby, worth $4,750 net.

Jimmy Murphy, the jockey who was ruled off at Lakeside by Judge Nathanson, has been reinstated by that official. Murphy has been engaged to ride for the Elkton Stock Farm and will go to Detroit with Rogers and the stable.

The sale of the late Colonel North's thoroughbreds took place at Newmarket on the opening day of the July meeting, and the horses in training brought big prices. Twenty-seven head sold for $24,478, about $122,390, an average of $4,532.96. The highest price of the sale was 5,100 guineas, $25,000, paid for Red Heart, chestnut colt, 4, by Hilarious or Cherry Ripe—The Sabine. Sixteen brood mares sold for 9,800 guineas, $48,300. Ten yearlings and four stallions were also sold, making 57 head in all that sold for 38,983 guineas, about $194,915, an average of $4,193.38.

The dead Maxim stands second on the "Winning Sires" list of New Zealand, with nine winners of £3,343 11s. 6d. to his credit. Artillery (the Musket horse now at Ranch del Paso), got twelve winners of £1,519 5s; Foul Shot (Barney Schreiber's Musket stallion), twelve winners of £932 12s. St. Leger (who is a half brother to the dead King Ban), heads the list again with twenty winners of £4,047 11s. Castor is sixth, with £2,040 8s and fifteen winners. The Julys won but one race amounting to £156 15s. Of 154 sires in this list Artillery stands twelfth, while Foul Shot ranks twenty-sixth.

Eastern Racing Rule Changes.

At the last meeting of the Jockey Club these amendments to its Rules of Racing were adopted:

Rule 4 to read as follows:

"After June 1 in each year only one over-night event for a distance less than a mile for horses three years old and upward shall be given on any race day, but should it be found necessary to add an extra race, this rule shall not apply to such race."

Rule 72, by the addition of the following paragraph:

"In produce races, or races for which nominations of foals are made, the nominator will be released from further liability by filling, prior to the date of the first declaration stated in the condition of the race, an accepted transfer of the entry, accompanied with all forfeits to date of said declaration."

Rule 39—In case a horse is not named prior to March 1 of its two-year-old year, it may be duly named upon payment of a fine of $50, if name is claimed and allowed at least two days before day of starting."

Notes of the Turf.

Rella H, the Spokane Stable maiden filly was killed at Latonia a day or two ago.

Now Maceo has been beaten, and there is not a single two-year-old "before the public" that can even be suspected of being a wonder.—Record. Will you not give Ornament "a shade"?

Mike Dwyer did not, as the cable reports, take a special trip to England to back Rey el Santa Anita for the Liverpool Cup. But all the Americans lost heavily. The horse is the same deceiver as of yore and ran unplaced.

NO. 2 OF LEATHER FORM.

Volume No. 2 of Quarterly Leather Form will be as much superior to original Leather Form as it was better than any previous publication giving real racing information. It will cost $6, and be ready for delivery on or before August 20th, and include all charts from June 1st to August 15th. Its index will be superb and lettered alphabetically on linen paper. There will be thirty blank pages behind its charts for future record. To be sure of the book, it must be ordered and paid for in advance. Not a copy of No. 1 is left. There will be no paper covered edition of No. 2.

HALF YEARLY RACING FORM.

With the August 20 Quarterly Leather Form No. 2 will be issued thirty volumes of a book of charts covering racing from March 26 to August 15 inclusive. It will be bound in extra leather with a superb index—lettered alphabetically on linen for hard use. The book will contain 700 pages of charts and index and will be sold for $10 per copy. Ten have already been reserved. Twenty are to be sold. The books are to be especially built for hard usage, such as bookmakers give their tools. They contain all the charts of all the half year and are invaluable. To guarantee delivery an order must be made and prepaid within the next three days. The book will be delivered, at the latest, August 20.
